

PURE MOTION DANCE COMPANY

Job posting for
Full-time and Part-time Ballet Instructors

Job Description

Pure Motion Dance Company, a busy dance studio located in southwest Calgary, is seeking a qualified and certified ballet instructor to teach full-time or part-time during the 2016 - 2017 dance season.

Our ballet program currently follows the Cecchetti Method of training, but we are open to instructors that teach other syllabi. Discipline, strength, and technique are emphasized in our ballet classes and our objective is to help students develop a solid understanding of flexibility, extension, and turnout.

THE POSITION: This is an instructional position; extensive dance experience and training is mandatory. Most importantly, we are seeking candidates with a cheerful disposition who like working with people in a busy and family-friendly environment. Responsibilities include preparing and organizing class plans, teaching weekly classes, and creating recital and/or competition choreography.

This position requires commitment from Monday to Friday including late-afternoons and evenings. Full-time employment consists of approximately 20-25 hours per week. The official start date of this position is September 1, 2016.

COMPENSATION: Depending on experience, our starting wage for ballet instructors is +$45/hour. A relocation allowance for out-of-town instructors will be provided.

Company Profile

Pure Motion Dance Company delivers a complete range of recreational, syllabus, and competition classes to youth and adult dancers. Since opening in 2008, we have become one of Calgary's most successfully established commercial dance studios. Our philosophy is founded on the premise that all students deserve the opportunity to explore the world of dance for its pure enjoyment and their personal artistic expression!

WHY WORK FOR US? Pure Motion Dance Company offers dancers and staff unparalleled opportunities to participate in a variety of high-profile performance events and educational experiences often involving international travel. Our previous trips included travel to Miami, Los Angeles, Boston, Chicago, and Phoenix. We offer top-tier salaries for our instructors as well as frequent opportunities to attend paid courses, seminars, and conferences.
