

Reconciliation: A Group Art Exhibition featuring the work of George Webber

Submitted work will be reviewed for relevance, artistic merit, and fit. Accepted work will be shown in a feature exhibition hosted by Mount Royal University as part of the Exposure Photography Festival during the month of February 2018, and will remain on display for a full calendar year.

Here's what you need to do:

Submit a series of images, along with a written statement of approx. 1500 characters (250 words) in length that describes how your work relates to the theme of Reconciliation. The series must be an interconnected body of work, including at least 2 pieces and a maximum of 10. You must also include your website (if applicable), and any relevant social media feeds.

Submission Deadline: November 5, 2017

Notification: November 20, 2017

Fee: Free submission, but artists who are selected will be required to deliver professionally printed and framed work at their own cost.

The fine print—rules and regulations

Each image file can be a maximum of 5MB in size. All images must be submitted as JPEGs—any files submitted in any other format (including TIFF, PDF, PSD, etc.) will not be reviewed. The file name of your image must be your first and surnames followed by 01, 02, 03, etc. (e.g. RobertFrank01.jpg). The work can be any medium. There are no restrictions on when the submitted works were created.

Accepted work will need to be delivered in good condition, to specifications dictated by the organizers. These instructions will be included in the acceptance notification sent by email. Final pieces ready to be hung must be delivered no later than January 15, 2018, with the understanding they will be on display at Mount Royal University's discretion for a full calendar year.

Digital files of the winning images will be used for press and publicity purposes. Mount Royal University reserves the right to display, reproduce and publish in any media, any entry, without payment, for the sole purpose of promotion and publicity for Mount Royal University, and the Exposure Photography Festival, now and in the future. No copyright is transferred to Mount Royal University in respect of any works entered or accepted. Each entrant will be deemed to warrant they own the entire copyright for the work or that they have permission from the licensee and/or copyright owner(s) for the uses. All relevant clearances and/or model releases must have been obtained for the use of the photographs for publication and exhibition.
