

Hello Amazing Artists,

Motion Gallery will be popping up at the Canada Day Block Party this year! Held at the Max Bell Center and will be jam packed with Live music, beer gardens, food trucks and free kids events, we will be setting up an exciting little art gallery right in the middle of it all. We are accepting a limited number of artists for this event, we will provide all promo materials and great exposure to 1000's of people attending the event. It will take place on July 1st, and is being hosted by MARKETSPOTYYC. It will run from 2:00 to 11:00pm.

Motion Gallery Society has an open call for artists show your artwork at our mobile gallery.

The Fee to participate is $60 for non members or $50 for Motion Gallery Society Members. You will be provided with one easel where you can display two large pieces of 4-8 smaller works.

There will be a 25% comisión on any artwork sold

Please send your submissions to info@motiongallery.ca and include your full name, phone number, description of work, website, and include 2-4 images of your work. If selected, you will receive and email with a contract and information on drop off and pick up of artwork, along with any important details for a successful exhibition.
