

SIX PERFORMANCE ACADEMY

THE CAMERA LOVES YOU Auditioning for Film and Television with Chantal Perron and Christian Goutsis

November 7, 8, 14, 15 - 6:30 to 10pm

In this 4 session workshop students will experience the technical world of the film audition room, and work on-camera every class. Actors will practice simplicity, specificity, stamina, and stillness, and learn how to prepare strong auditions by focusing on script interpretation and making smart choices. Participants receive valuable feedback and insight into their performances from peers and industry professionals, and gain practical on-camera experience to help develop the confidence and skills to be successful in any audition room.

Fee: $425+GST

Max. Participants: 8

Age: 15+

Click the link to register

www.sixdegreesperformance.ca/courses/the-camera-loves-you-auditioning-for-film-and-television/

Instructor Bios

CHANTAL PERRON

Chantal Perron offers 17 years of experience in the Alberta film industry. Easily one of the provinces top bookers, she also has worked as a stand-in on set, and works for casting directors as an experienced, trusted reader in the audition room. As an educator in her field since 2005, Chantal has lectured at Red Deer College, SAIT, various regional high schools, and has been a facilitator and teacher for the Ultimate Audition Workshop out of Vancouver. Chantal taught public speaking to elite young athletes at the National Sports School, and taught Film Studies at Playhouse North for 3 years. Her small company, The Camera Loves You, has developed film audition and scene study workshops for all age groups. It has grown into a very popular set of classes and when one is offered, it fills within hours. She is the recipient of the 2005 AMPIA Award for Best Actress for Chicks with Sticks. Chantal is also an accomplished theatre actor working on professional Alberta stages since 2000. She has been nominated for three Betty Mitchell Awards for her work in The Dazzle (2005) Scorched (2007), and Aviatrix (2012).

CHRISTIAN GOUTSIS

Christian started acting in plays in elementary school and in his parent's basement. At 12, he started doing children's theatre, and appearing in network television programs where he began to realize a career as an actor. After receiving a BFA in drama from the University of Calgary Christian began working as a professional actor, and for almost 30 years he has worked all across Canada, the US, and abroad, as an actor, director, musician, writer, and teacher. As an actor, Christian has worked extensively at major theatres all across Canada, and has twice toured throughout the UK. He has been featured in numerous films and network television programs for CBC, Syfy, NBC, YTV, CBS, Hallmark, and many independent productions. Christian's voice has been heard in animations, podcasts, audiobooks, radio plays, and in hundreds of commercial voice-overs for local, national, and international companies. As a director, Christian has directed workshops, plays, musicals, radio commercials, animations, audiobooks, and radio plays both in Canada and the U.S. He has lectured, coached, and taught actors of all ages at drama schools, public and private schools of every grade level, and at many post-secondary colleges and universities throughout his entire career. He has composed music for plays, is a produced playwright, a multiple Betty a multiple Betty Mitchell Award winner and nominee, a multiple Calgary Critic award winner, and AMPIA award nominee. Christian is Casting Director and Voice Director at Six Degrees.