

CALGARY ARTS DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY
Chair and Board Members (3)

Connector ♦ Facilitator ♦ Collaborator ♦ Champion ♦ Supporter ♦ Amplifier
Investor ♦ Catalyst ♦ Opportunity-maker

As the city's designated arts development authority, Calgary Arts Development Authority ("CADA") supports and strengthens the arts to benefit all Calgarians.

CADA invests and allocates municipal funding for the arts as provided by The City of Calgary. It then leverages these funds to provide additional resources. Through its granting and arts development programs, CADA supports hundreds of arts and culture organizations, individual artists, artist collectives, and ad hoc arts groups in Calgary.

CADA strives to increase and use its resources wisely, foster collaborative relationships, promote diversity and integrate arts into the lives of Calgarians. CADA recently received a transformational increase in arts funding to support Calgary in becoming a more innovative city promoting an exceptional quality of life, a diversified economy, and shared prosperity.

As a volunteer chair or board member, you will be responsible for actively participating in the effective oversight and governance of CADA. You will work as a team member to establish strategic direction, framework policies and participate in board committees.

As the successful candidate, you must reside in the city of Calgary, have a passion for the arts and CADA's mandate. You relish serving the community and bring experience in one or more of the following areas: arts and culture, digital arts, communications, human resources, governance, finance, Indigenous relations and/or the not-for-profit sector. Your experience includes having served on, or are currently serving on an arts, community, public sector and/or corporate boards.

Fulfill your passion for arts and culture and your desire to make a difference in our community by serving as a chair and/or board member. Please forward your resume in confidence to careers@altopartners.ca by May 3, 2019.

We would like to thank all applicants for their interest. Only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.