

Interdisciplinary Musical Arts Program

Cassa is a rare collective of experts, focussing their expertise and talents towards creating a unique interdisciplinary musical arts program for youth. These high-calibre lessons are coming to a screen near you this summer!

Cassa in a Box:

MUSICAL August 4, 5, 6, 11, 12 & 13

Can't get enough musical theatre? Do you like to sing? Or, attracted to drama? Cassa's Musical is an experience you are sure to enjoy. Learn audition techniques, tips to memorize lines and what it takes to create an entire musical theatre extravaganza. Working alongside talented instructors you'll benefit from vocal and acting coaching. Students will collaborate to bring a Cassa-fied version of Frankenstein to life. Come channel your monsta'!

SONGWRITING July 27-30

Got something to say? Want to use more than just words? Join us to learn how combining music and words can weave together a deeper experience. By looking at how lyrics can convey your thoughts, and how melody, harmony and rhythm connect directly to your feelings, songwriting can open doors of communication that go to very special places. Join us and unlock the mysteries of self-expression—through song!

PLAYWRITING July 13-16

Got a knack for storytelling? Want to learn how to construct and produce a play? In this dramatic, fun-filled course, you'll learn how to write and rehearse your own unique play. Through teamwork, you'll create the plot, craft the script, write the dialogue and hone your acting skills, leading to your very own production—complete with performance. It's not just child's play!

STAGING July 27-30

Love the theatre but prefer backstage? Now's your chance to join Cassa experts for a deep dive into Set Design and Tech Theatre. Our online program will feature interactive activities that will keep you moving, including: Key components to designing a set; Turning everyday things into a high-impact prop; Manipulate light and colour for your purpose; Creative sound-making. Whether you're interested in design or identify as a tech-head, this course will light up your life!

JAZZ July 13-16

Need to jazz things up? Dive in to the various elements that define and shape the jazz genre with the goal of equipping you with tools for playing, writing, and improvising within the jazz idiom. The flow of the course will be influenced by you—and your personal jazz journey. Your friends and family will be jazzed by our course performance. Ooooo...Jazzy!

PIANO July 20-23

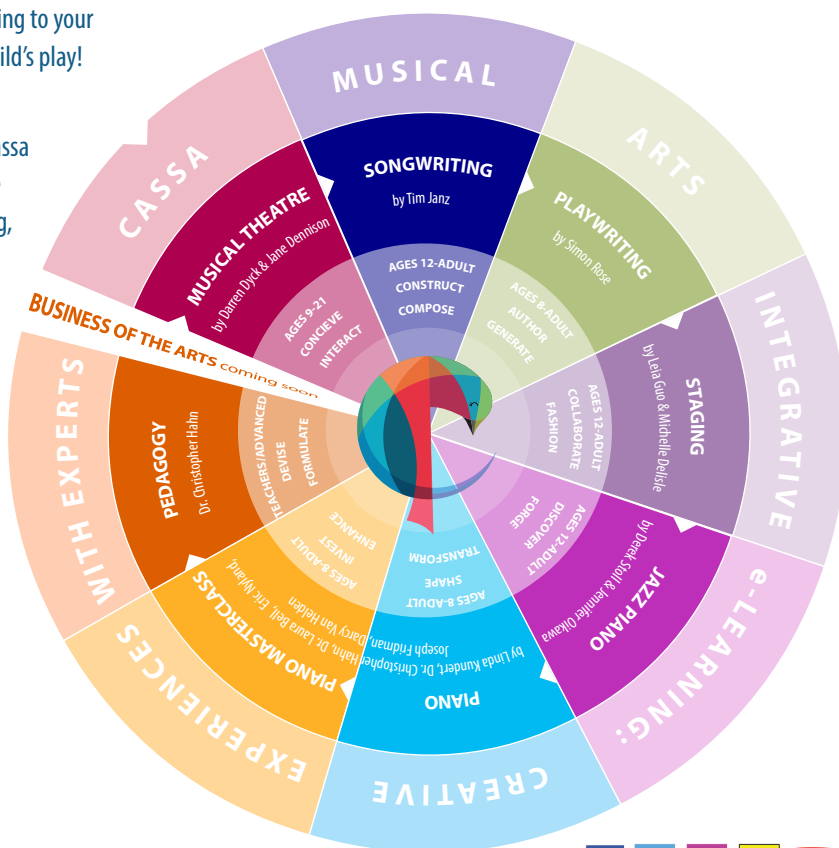

Want more confidence? This is an intensive mentoring program for ambitious piano students. Students will learn from piano experts, building confidence with this year's composer—Beethoven. You'll be guided toward a deeper understanding of this great composer and will offer unique insight into playing his works. Lessons will culminate in an online recital that friends and family can enjoy. Piantastical!

MASTERCLASS July 16 & 28

Need some inspiration? Build your piano performance skills with Cassa's masterclasses. Become immersed in your choice of session length with a selection of master musicians. Teachers, friends and family are all welcome to watch Cassa experts working alongside pianists. Keep music alive this summer!

PEDAGOGY July 20-21

Want to leap ahead this summer? Our esteemed clinician, Dr. Christopher Hahn, will share his expertise on teaching music for professional development to pianists and teachers. How grande!
