

PERFORMING ARTS INSTRUCTOR

The City of Airdrie fosters a culture of accountability and values open dialogue, innovation and entrepreneurial spirit, collaborative relationships, learning, ownership, and encouraging the heart. We are searching for another team member who will help us get to the next level.

We Are:

We're a place where you can grow. We're a place where you're encouraged to learn and be innovative. We're a place where people take ownership and do what they say they'll do. We're a place where colleagues are friends and neighbours are customers. We're a place where health, wellness and safety are top of mind. We're a place where you just might be a perfect fit.

Our Team:

The City of Airdrie is currently recruiting for a Performing Arts professional with experience in drama, musical theatre, and movement for children.

The role will be responsible for teaching classes on a sessional basis in the mediums indicated. The successful candidate will be an accomplished Performing Arts Instructor with a passion and dedication to the growth of performing arts in the City of Airdrie. There is the potential for future programming opportunities, and we look forward to ideas and proposals from potential instructors.

The Opportunity:

The responsibilities of a Performing Arts Instructor include:

- Deliver high quality performance classes to our students
- Motivate and inspire confidence in participants
- Create lesson plans
- Teach students about plays
- Assist students in creating their own dramatic pieces, building self-confidence, accessing creativity and strengthening stage presence
- Teach presentation skills including monologue and audition preparation, organize, and manage the learning environment, direct performance rehearsals and end of class performances
- Help to assemble and manage lighting and sound etc.
- Some light cleaning duties may be required

You Bring:

- Minimum 3 years of experience and demonstrated skills teaching within the area of specialty (acting, musical theatre, movement, directing)
- Candidates with formal university training in performing arts will be given priority
- Experience in development of programs
- Experience in acting, musical theatre, movement, and directing would be considered an asset
- Current Standard First Aid – Level C CPR and AED required (Please upload copies of certification with online application)
- Skilled in design and facilitation of arts programs
- Proven background in providing exceptional customer service
- Possess strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to work with minimal supervision
- Mature and reliable
- Excellent communication, leadership, organizational, and problem-solving skills
- Outstanding dependability, initiative, creativity and decision-making skills

We Offer:

Competitive compensation and the following benefits:

- EAP (Employee Assistance Program)
- annual adult Genesis Place pass

We believe connection and culture are the keys to our customer service. We do this through continuous learning, regular team building, and organizational social events so all employees have the knowledge to provide excellence in service to our community.

Additional Information:

This competition is for part time/casual performing instructors for evening and weekend classes. Remuneration for preparation or administration time will be determined together with the facilitator for each class.

Please include a cover letter with your application, describing any specific areas of expertise and interest; the productions you have performed in; and programs you have either developed and/or facilitated.

Qualified candidates may be interviewed and hired prior to the posted closing date.

Next Steps:

Candidates are invited to apply online at www.airdrie.ca/careers

Position ID: J0721-1007

Postings close at 9 p.m. on the closing date listed in the posting.

We recommend applying as soon as possible as we are not able to accept late applications.

Please review the job competition carefully and be sure to attach any specifically requested documentation in the My Documents section of your application.

Thank you for your interest in the City of Airdrie.