

Beginning: A NATIONAL CONVERSATION

BANFF

JOIN IN. MAY 2-5, 2022

The first national conversation focusing on the challenges and opportunities facing artists living with developmental disabilities is happening in Toronto, Vancouver, and Banff.

THIS CONVERSATION WILL BE DESIGNED FOR:

- Artists living with a developmental disability
- Disability support workers, caregivers, or members of the disability sector in general
- Arts programming professionals
- Arts funders, administrators, and leaders

FEATURING PRESENTATIONS FROM:

- Daniel Vais, Founder, Drag Syndrome
- Betty Siegel, Director, Office of Accessibility, The Kennedy Center
- Pixel Kim, Artist based in Seoul, Korea
- Abdulla Lutfi, Artist based in Dubai

The conversations will be co-facilitated and co-designed by Canmore-based Kathi Irvine and Geoff Powter who will be working alongside a national facilitation team.

Join us and help us design an arts and culture ecosystem that showcases and supports artists with developmental disabilities.

REGISTRATION: $500***

* Covers accommodations, refreshments, food, snacks during the three days. Registration subsidies available. Please visit the website for more details.

Full program details available on:

BEGINNING2022.COM

PRESENTING SPONSOR:

Canada Council
for the Arts

Conseil des arts
du Canada

HOSTED BY:

NATIONAL
accessARTS
CENTRE

VENUE SPONSOR:

BANFF
CENTRE FOR ARTS AND CREATIVITY