

Cultural Leaders Legacy Arts Awards 2022

NOMINATION PACKAGE

SANDSTONE CITY BUILDER AWARD

Deadline: Monday, May 16, 2022, 4:30pm MT

SANDSTONE City Builder Award

The SANDSTONE City Builder Award was established to recognize artists and/or organizations that make Calgary a better place to live through the arts. The award recognizes and supports individuals and groups who are committed to enriching Calgary through an artistic practice or art program(s) that are driven by social impact outcomes.

This is a $5,000 cash award, with funds intended to allow an artist or organization the ability to continue their work and expand their impact. The award will be presented to the recipient at an event celebrating the arts in 2022.

This award was established by SANDSTONE Asset Management and Calgary 2012 and is a legacy project of Calgary's year as a Cultural Capital of Canada.

About SANDSTONE Asset Management

SANDSTONE Asset Management Inc. is a Calgary-based firm offering global discretionary investment management services to private individuals, foundations, and family trusts. SANDSTONE is committed to advancing the success of Calgary and its citizens by adding both financial and social capital to address increasingly diverse needs.

The SANDSTONE City Builder Award is just one of the ways SANDSTONE contributes to a vibrant Calgary. For more information about SANDSTONE Asset Management's commitment to the community visit sandstoneam.com/community.

Award Rules & Criteria

Eligibility

Nominees for the SANDSTONE City Builder Award must meet all the following criteria:

- Be a Calgary resident since the beginning of the nomination year (2022). If the artist or organization's primary address is outside of Calgary, significant evidence must be given to demonstrate how the nominated organization or artist primarily operates, works in, or serves the community of Calgary.
