The GRAND welcomes performance-based artists to apply for the summer Performance Development Residency.

This week-long residency will offer selected artists/collectives access to The GRAND Studio to focus on the development of new or in-progress performance based works. Each selected artist or group will receive one week (7 days) private access to the space.

This program will culminate in a paid performance of the works-in-progress in a cabaret style performance in The GRAND's Flanagan Theatre. Artist fees will be determined based on the total number of artists and duration of pieces.

LOCATION: The GRAND Studio, 3rd floor, 608 1st Street SW, Calgary, Alberta

ELIGIBILITY:

Applications will be evaluated by a selection committee of external arts professionals and The GRAND Programming Team.

The Summer Performance Development Residency aims to support artists who meet the following criteria:

- Emerging to mid-career independent artists and artistic companies who have a project idea or an in-progress work that would benefit from incubation and/or rehearsal time in the GRAND's Studio.
- Artists working in a range of contemporary performance-based artforms (all disciplines welcome). Visual arts proposals that are conducive to a performance space will also be considered (eg. photography, video).
- Equity-deserving artists are strongly encouraged to apply.
- Applicants must demonstrate they are actively working towards developing their practice.
- Availability for the final performance August 26th, 2022.

Application period: June 16 - June 26, 2022
